

Concert to Feature Bruckner's 'Te Deum'

Anton Bruckner's "Te Deum" will be the major work presented at the third concert of this season by the Beach Cities Symphony and guest chorus, Los Cancioneros, under the direction of Louis Palange.

The chorus and orchestra will also join in performing "How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place" from the Brahms "Requiem" mass, conducted by Barbara Mabin, director of Los Cancioneros.

The concert will be given for the public on March 1 at 8:15 p.m. at the Mira Costa High School Auditorium in Manhattan Beach. There will be no admission charge.

Palange will direct the orchestra in the "Overture" to "Der Freischutz," von Weber; "Suite for Strings," Grieg; "Dance of the Hours," Ponchielli-Gioconda; and "A Mighty Fortress is Our God," Johann Sebastian Bach.

The singers will perform a group of ballads and American and English folk songs, including "Cindy," "Scarborough Fair," and others. Mrs. Mabin announces that soloists for the "Te Deum" are as follows:

IRENE ROBERTS of Hollywood Riviera, who appeared as soprano soloist with Los Cancioneros in the Honegger "King David" at El Camino College. She recently gave a recital for the Music Teachers' Assn. of Los Angeles, has performed for the South Bay Music Workshop, and has sung in churches of this area. She is past chairman of the Music Workshop and is currently chairman of Los Cancioneros.

Mary Alice Brown, contralto, formerly taught instrumental music in the Los Angeles City Schools. She played violin in the Pasadena and Glendale symphonies and also appeared as a singer and violinist at the Bach Festival in Carmel.

Mrs. Brown, now a resident of Rolling Hills, also served on the staff of the School of Music at Idyllwild, and is a new member of Los Cancioneros.

Thomas H. Mabin of Rolling Hills is a charter member of Los Cancioneros. He is also a member of the popular men's quartet, the Singers.

Soloist for the Methodist Church of Thenton, N. J., before coming to California, Mabin has been heard in solo appearances at Neighborhood Church in Palos Verdes and St. Luke's Presbyterian Church in rolling hills. He is also an instrumentalist and played clarinet and saxophone professionally for 18 years.

WILLIAM H. BECKMAN is also a charter member of Los Cancioneros. He began his choral experiences as a student in East Los Angeles schools, appeared in music presentations at Los Angeles City College, and was active in concert and light opera performances of the Adult Education program.

On coming to Hollywood Riviera, Beckman was active in forming the first group of Los

Chapel Choir Announced at St. Andrew's

Formation of a Chapel Choir to be comprised of persons 14 through 17 years of age has been announced for St. Andrew's Episcopal Church by the Rev. Hugh R. Percy, rector of the parish.

Meredith Anne Anderson, director of choirs and organist for the church, will direct the new choral group, he said. An organizational meeting has been called for 12:30 p.m. Sunday in the Sunday School hall of the church at 1432 Engracia Ave.

"I feel this presents an opportunity to our young men and girls to receive excellent vocal training as well as enjoy the fellowship of interesting social activities," the Rev. Mr. Percy said.

Birthday Luncheon Set Today

Mrs. Charles Molnar, former Baptist missionary to India, will be the speaker at today's annual birthday luncheon sponsored by the Women's Mission Society of the Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd.

Wife of the pastor of the First Baptist Church of Tarzana, Mrs. Molnar and her husband are graduates of the Eastern Baptist Seminary of Philadelphia.

The event is a birthday celebration for every woman in the church. Twelve tables, one for each month of the year, are decorated with a birthday cake to be shared by the women whose birthday falls in that month.

The Clara Dorn circle will furnish the hostesses for the occasion.

Choir Begins To Prepare Easter Music

Work on the Easter Cantata has started at the Lomita Missionary Church, according to the Rev. Earl B. Leonard, pastor.

Special practice has been scheduled each Friday evening at 7:30 and again on Sunday at 5 p.m. Edwin Terui, assistant to the pastor, will direct the choir.

The Rev. Mr. Leonard will bring a second in a series of sermons on the subject, "Basic Christian Fundamentals," at the 11 a.m. worship services Sunday.

"What do you believe about God, and will your beliefs take you to Heaven?" the pastor asks.

"When the Brooks of Life Dry Up," will be the subject of his 7 p.m. message Sunday. "God has the answer when life turns sour — when the brooks dry up," he will state.

Michael Newell directs the Sunday School hour which is part of the worship in study at the 9:45 a.m. services each Sunday. All services are held at 2043 Lomita Blvd.

Offering to Serve Baptist Home Missions

Sunday morning at Calvary Baptist Church emphasis will be given to "America for Christ Sunday," at which time a special offering will be received for the work of the American Baptist Home Mission Societies.

The offering, designated for "people of special need" will go to aid Christian centers in the city, hospitals, work with the blind, juvenile "junior citizens" camps, children's homes, and other special needs in our land.

The pastor, Rev. H. Earl Kuester, will preach at all services Sunday. A continuation of the current series of messages on the book of Ephesians will be delivered at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. dual services, entitled, "The Unsearchable Riches."

At 7 p.m. the pastor will preach on a text in Exodus. The message will be "God's Children at the Red Sea."

Women to Lead Services at Church Sunday

Women of the parish will participate in services at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Sunday as Episcopal Churchwomen's Sunday is observed at all services.

Women of the church will serve as ushers and will participate in other parts of each service during the day.

The Rev. Hugh R. Percy, rector, will give a special address on the work and worship of women in the church.

Chairmen of the observance are Mrs. Hugh R. Percy and Mrs. H. Ted Whisnand.

Lesson-Topic Sunday About Man's 'Mind'

The divine source of man's intelligence will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mind" to be heard at Christian Science church services Sunday.

From the Bible this passage will be read: "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him."

Correlative readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include this sentence: "Spirit, God, gathers unformed thoughts into their proper channels, and unfolds these thoughts, even as He opens the petals of a holy purpose in order that the purpose may appear."

The Golden Text is from Proverbs: "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding."

Young People Attend Rally

A delegation of members of the Young People's Federation at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church attended a Missionary Rally of the Episcopal Young Churchmen at St. Michael's, Anaheim, Sunday. Special speaker for the affair was Bishop Richards from Central America.

The Rev. Ralph E. Parks, assistant to the rector at St. Andrew's, accompanied the group.
